

Structural Insulated Panels Market is estimated to be US$ 18.65 billion by 2030 with a CAGR of 5.3% during the forecast period

Structural Insulated Panels Market accounted for US$ 11.17 billion in 2020 and is estimated to be US$ 18.65 billion by 2030 and is anticipated to register a CAGR of 5.3%. Structural insulated panels are engineered to construct walls, floors, and ceilings. Structural insulated panels has various benefits over the traditional framing lumber and insulation, such as extreme durability, strong and also an energy efficient building option. These panels consist of an insulating foam core sandwiched between two structural facings, typically oriented strand board (OSB).

The report "Global Structural Insulated Panels Market, By Type (EPS Panels, PUR/PIR Panels, Glass Wool Panels, and Others), By Application (Building Wall, Building Roof, and Cold Storage), and By Region (North America, Europe, Asia Pacific, Latin America, and Middle East & Africa) - Trends, Analysis and Forecast till 2029 - Trends, Analysis and Forecast till 2030"

Key Highlights:

- In October 2021, Nucor Corporation announced the launch of Econiq, a line of net-zero carbon steel products. Building the green economy and the necessary infrastructure requires clean, advanced steel products.
- In August 2020, Owens Corning introduced a new product line called Foamular NGX. It is a new line of Extruded Polystyrene (XPS) foam products that delivers 90% reduction in Global Warming Potential (GWP) without sacrificing product performance.

Analyst View:

Exceptional thermal performance, with reduced energy cost ideally LEED and net-zero-ready building standard is expected to foster the structural insulated panel market over the forecast period. Further, the structural insulated panel allows better control over indoor air quality as it limits incoming air to controlled ventilation which filters out contaminants and allergens, increasing the demand of structural insulated panels. Further, advantages such as faster construction with less labor, design flexibility, and sustainability credentials is expected boost the structural insulated panels market.

Key Market Insights from the report:

Global Structural Insulated Panels Market accounted for US$ 11.17 billion in 2020 and is estimated to be US$ 18.65 billion by 2030 and is anticipated to register a CAGR of 5.3%. Global Structural Insulated Panels Market is segmented into type, application, and region.

- Based on Type, Global Structural Insulated Panels Market is segmented into EPS Panels, PUR/PIR Panels, Glass Wool Panels, and Others
- Based on Application Global Structural Insulated Panels Market is segmented into Building Wall, Building Roof, and Cold Storage
- By Region, the Global Structural Insulated Panels Market is segmented into North America, Europe, Asia Pacific, Latin America, and Middle East & Africa.
- Europe is expected to account for major revenue share as compared to that of other regions.

Competitive Landscape & their strategies of Global Structural Insulated Panels Market:

The key players in the global Structural Insulated Panels Market includes Kingspan, Metecno, Isopan, NCI Building Systems, TATA Steel and ArcelorMittal

The market provides detailed information regarding the industrial base, productivity, strengths, manufacturers, and recent trends which will help companies enlarge the businesses and promote financial growth. Furthermore, the report exhibits dynamic factors including segments, sub-segments, regional marketplaces, competition, dominant key players, and market forecasts. In addition, the market includes recent collaborations, mergers, acquisitions, and partnerships along with regulatory frameworks across different regions impacting the market trajectory. Recent technological advances and innovations influencing the global market are included in the report.

About Prophecy Market Insights
